II. DEFINITIONS

1. As used herein the terms "document" and "documents" mean any and all tangible things, whether handwritten, typed, printed, e-mailed, recorded, filmed, photostated, copied or reproduced in any way. The term "documents" shall also include any draft or version of a document and all copies which are not identical to the original; all modifications or additions to any document, whether or not such copies or drafts are specifically mentioned in particular requests; and any material recorded on verbal, graphic, computer, electronic, telecommunicative, or magnetic form, and any other form capable of being read, heard or otherwise understood.
2. The terms "you" and "your" means belonging to Christie's, its affiliates, agents, servants, principals, partners, associates, employees, corporate officers, attorneys, representatives, investigators, experts, or consultants employed, retained or hired by or on their behalf, and all others who have acted, purported to act, or obtained information for or on their behalf.
3. The term "relating to" means referring to, concerning, describing, evidencing, or constituting.
4. The singular shall include the plural and the plural shall include the singular.
5. The words "and" and "or" shall be construed conjunctively to mean "and/or.". The word "any" shall be construed to mean "any and all" where the effect of such construction is to broaden the scope of the document request in question.
6. The term "including" shall not be construed to limit the scope of any document request; rather, it shall be construed as meaning "including, without limitation."

7. The term "person(s)" includes any natural person or any business, legal or governmental entity or association, and any subdivisions, instrumentalities and agencies thereof.
